

DRUSKININKAI – WELNESS SPRINGS RESORT

First time Druskininkai was mentioned in the sourcebook in 1636. On the 1794 the Grand Duke of Lithuania and the King of Poland Stanislaw August Poniatowski issued the decree and declared Druskininkai to be the watering-place.

Vilnius University Professor Ignacy Fonberg performed and published the analysis of the chemical composition of local waters in 1835.

In the middle of the nineteenth century Druskininkai was the third most popular health resort, including Crimea and Caucasus.

In 2003 magazine “Newseek” included Druskininkai in TOP 10 balneology resorts in Europe.

Today Druskininkai is modern resort, offering services, treatment procedures and beautiful nature that can be enjoyed all year round. Druskininkai boasts with salty mineral water springs that not only gave the name to the resort, but also became a tourist attraction. Spectacular boscages, meanders of the father of Lithuanian rivers, Nemunas, sincerity of locals and quiet life rhythm of the resort captivates everyone who visits it. You will breathe clean air, drink mineral water sparkling directly from natural sources, refresh yourself in natural healing mud baths, and relax in spas. There are no major sources of pollution in the town and around it.

Druskininkai resort has been rapidly modernized over the past decade, and today it can satisfy even the most demanding tastes. Spas in the city offer a variety of beauty and health treatments, and relaxation in comfortable hotels. Culture lovers are invited to visit the museums, architectural monuments, and remarkable natural objects in the town and its surroundings. And those wanting to have fun are welcome to the water park (www.akvapark.lt), Snow arena (www.snowarena.lt) or admire the surrounding area of the resort and the Nemunas bends from 40 meters with cableway!
